

OLD KING'S HIGHWAY HISTORIC DISTRICT

PAINTING

Painting the exterior of your house (siding, trim, shutters, doors, etc.) needs to be approved when the color is changed. Repainting in the same color does not require approval. Also, painting or changing from a color to *white does not need to be approved. The Old King's Highway Committee will review your color choices for appropriateness to the style & setting of the house.

To paint or change house, trim, shutters or doors to a color other than white an Application for a Certificate of Appropriateness must be presented to the OKH Committee for approval.

Application Requirements:

- ___ 1 copy: Certificate of Appropriateness Application
- ___ 4 copies: General Specification Sheet indicating area to be painted, including color chip(s)
- ___ 1 copy: Abutters' List (Map & Lot numbers only)
- ___ 4 copies: Color Photos (Front of house & any other sides to be painted)
- ___ $25 application fee
